God's word is inspired even in mother tongue

WORD FROM THE GENERAL SECRETARY

Rev. George Magonjwa, General Secretary of the East African Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, recently visited Mwingi East District of the Eastern Equatoria Conference in Kenya. The visit took place during June 2015, coinciding with the general conference session of the East African Conference. The visit was an opportunity to encourage and motivate the churches in the district.

Mwingi East District is home to the Adventist church, and the visit was an opportunity to strengthen the church's mission. The visit included a visit to the Adventist school in the district, where the General Secretary met with the students and teachers. The visit was an opportunity to encourage the students to continue their education and to stay committed to their faith.

THE COMPLETION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

The East African Conference is pleased to announce the completion of the New Testament. The New Testament has been a long-awaited project, and its completion is a significant milestone in the conference's history. The project, which involved a team of translators, was completed in response to the needs of the Adventist church in the region.

The completion of the New Testament is a testament to the conference's commitment to serving the church. It is a significant achievement, and the conference is proud to have played a role in its completion. The conference is looking forward to the continued progress of the project and to the continued growth of the Adventist church in the region.